

WAR HERO DR. GARY SEABAUGH SPEAKS ABOUT FAMILY MATTERS

he founder and director of the Plaza Academy and frequent guest on various national radio shows will be speaking at the Family Expo. Dr. Seabaugh was awarded the Silver Star for heroism in Vietnam. Kip Cozad observed, "He pulled Marines from fire and Vietnamese children out of harm's way; now he is pulling families and teenagers from the morass of academic indifference and state control."

Listen to Dr. Seabaugh for a breath of fresh air on the problems families face in our society. Recently, on the Mike Murphy Show he stated, "In a time when the state and federal government want to manage children's education, medical care, sexual behavior and other familial influence; we need everyone to understand that self-management is the only alternative to state control."

At the Family Expo Dr. Seabaugh will speak about the necessity to become self-reliant, not just for children, but for everyone. As a speaker he is unmatched, this presentation is an absolute must, you will not be disappointed!
